On Their Imperial Yachts They Enter the Harbor at Kiel.

KIRL, June 7.—At 9 o'clock this morning Emperor William boarded the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern and staried for Friedrichsport to meet the Czar. The Hobenzollern was escorted by a despatch boat and another yacht. The yards of the vessels were manned and the Russian colors were helsted. An hour later the Hohenzollern returned in company with the Russian Imperial yacht Polar Star, on board of which was the Czar. Following closely in the waxe of the imperial yachts came the Russian war-ships Tsarevna and Admiral Korntioff. The Russian Imperial fleet was loudly cheered upon entering the roaustead by the crews of the German warships and merchantmen lying there and salutes from the warships were fired in honor of the Imperial visitor. At 10.30 o'clock the Emperor and Czar landed and preceded to the Barka-rossi Bridge, where was stationed a guard of honor. Thence they drove to the Castle. Here they were received by a guard of honor, consisting of the First Navai Battalion, which was drawn up in the Castle yard. Later a grand reception was held at the Castle.
